Detailed description

This apartment is very rarely found in the offer, because it is completely equipped and unique. The building itself is in a very nice location in Dorcol, and it is new, with security and video surveillance. Apartment has exceptional functionality, unequalled quality. Fully equipped with high quality materials, every detail of the apartment and piece of furniture is handmade. It consists of a living - dining area, two bedrooms, bathroom and kitchen. The design of the apartment is signed by our famous architect and interior designer. Net precise lines, images of modern topics, combined with airily natural motives, give this apartment a touch of extravagance and uniqueness. The combination of warm and cold materials, wood and steel, gives the impression of inimitable design and unattainable aesthetics. Sophisticated and refined in design, the apartment is waiting for you to enjoy in it.
